

ROCHELLE PLANTATION RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

I hereby understand that Rochelle Plantation is not responsible for any bodily injury or property damage incurred while I am on this property.

I request permission to participate in cross-country riding and foxhunting with Middleton Place Hounds on Rochelle Plantation. I fully understand that cross-country riding and foxhunting (which includes riding over fences, other obstacles, and dangerous and rough terrain) are very dangerous activities. I wish to participate in these activities knowing they are dangerous. I accept and assume all the risks of injury (including death) to me and my property.

In exchange for being permitted to participate in these activities, for myself, my heirs, guardians and legal representatives, I release and agree not to make or bring any actions, causes of actions, claims, or demands for damages, cost, loss of service, expenses and compensation, which relate or in any way grow out of any and all known and unknown injuries and damages of whatsoever nature (including death) which may occur to me or my property, due to my negligence or the negligence of other participants, spectators, parties, sponsors, individuals, entities, or other, including any injury or loss I may suffer even from the negligence of the sponsor or any individual or entity, whether foreseen or unforeseen, contemplated or not contemplated, against Rochelle Plantation, Patricia Lucas Bennett Marital Trust, Patricia B. Manigault, Pierre Manigault, Ivan Anderson, Jr., White oak Forestry Corporation , Evening Post Publishing Company or any of their officers, directors and employees.

Under South Carolina law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in an equine activity resulting from an inherent risk of equine activity, pursuant to Article 7, Chapter 9 of Title 47, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976.
